

Licensure Information

As a member of the national State Authorization Reciprocity Agreement (SARA), Florida A&M University must notify out-of-state students in writing regarding the connection their program of study has to their local licensing and certification requirements.

If appropriate, the University will notify the student by acknowledging one of the following three (3) options:

[Option 1]

The University can confirm that at this time our program meets the educational eligibility criteria for licensure or certification in [insert specific licensure or certification] in the State of _____ where you reside. At this time, additional eligibility criteria in your state include [insert additional eligibility criteria such as experience and exams]. You are welcome to contact [insert program director name and contact info or alternative contact] with questions in this regard so we may assist you in your career planning.

[Option 2]

The University is unable to confirm the licensure and certification requirements of your state of residence. If you intend to pursue such credentialing in your state or elsewhere, we advise you to contact the applicable state credentialing authority to familiarize yourself with its specific requirements and determine if our program meets its eligibility criteria. You are welcome to contact [insert program director name and contact info or alternative contact] with questions in this regard and we will do our best to assist you in your career planning.

[Option 3]

While licensure or certification may be available in your field of study, our program does not lead to such licensure or certification upon graduation. The professional preparation you receive in our program, however, may assist you in such pursuits. That said, we are unable to confirm the licensure and certification requirements of your state of residence. If you intend to pursue such credentialing in your state or elsewhere, we advise you to contact the applicable state credentialing authority to familiarize yourself with its specific requirements and determine if our program meets its eligibility criteria. You are welcome to contact [insert program director name and contact info or alternative contact] with questions in this regard and we will do our best to assist you in your career planning.
